CONFLICTS

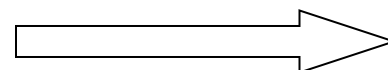

List ALL reoccurring and date specific conflicts below that fall between now and the end of the show run. The success of our show depends on the commitment of the cast and crew. Tech week will typically start the Sunday before the show opens and run until opening. No absences are allowed during this time unless prior approval. Rehearsal dates and times will be determined by the director based on cast and crew availability. The director will set the schedule for rehearsals. All rehearsals are closed unless prior approval from the director.

TEAM AGREEMENT

I understand that if I become a member of the cast, staff, or crew, I will attend all rehearsals and/or meetings for which I am called and will be a team player during set build and strike. We will start all practices on time and try to end on time. The Director will have the final say on blocking and acting decisions. Cast members are required to supply costumes unless it is a special item. Directors might require group warmups and if so, participation is required.
